

JOB DESCRIPTION:
ADVOCATE

THE ORGANIZATION:

Started in 2012, Network for Victim Recovery of DC (NVRDC) creates equitable healing and dignified experiences for survivors of crime by providing free, trauma-informed advocacy, therapeutic, and legal services in conjunction with strategic litigation, policy advocacy, and education to transform existing responses to harm. We are a growing DC nonprofit organization with a team of passionate and dedicated staff.

THE POSITION:

NVRDC seeks a qualified individual to provide advocacy and case management support to survivors, on-call support to NVRDC's community-based crisis response as part of the DC Sexual Assault Crisis Response Program, and offer follow-up services for survivors. This position reports to the Advocacy Manager and Advocacy Director.

This individual will be directly responsible for carrying out the mission of NVRDC and must be resourceful, highly organized, a team player, flexible, a critical and analytical thinker, self-reflective and self-aware, and open to growth and learning. The advocate will be committed to working with people from diverse cultural, linguistic, economic, educational and vocational backgrounds to demonstrate NVRDC's dedication to social justice and access to justice for all victims of crime in DC.

BENEFITS PACKAGE:

This is a full-time, FLSA exempt, at-will position with an annual compensation range of $55,000-$57,000 contingent upon experience. NVRDC offers a competitive benefits package for paid time off, contribution for the cost of health care coverage, company paid basic life insurance policy, paid federal holidays, retirement plan options with a 3% match and vesting after one year, and professional development.

POSITION PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES:

The advocate is the lifeline of NVRDC and provides individualized support, assistance, advocacy, and referrals to survivors of crime in Washington, DC.

Advocacy Services:

- Work with NVRDC's advocacy and legal teams to support the outputs of services specific to survivors accessing legal support and advocacy;

- Provide telephonic and in-person advocacy services in the community and/or hospital to survivors of sexual assault in fulfillment of the Sexual Assault Victims Rights Amendment Act;
- Work closely with the Metropolitan Police Department and partner agencies to facilitate open communication and a seamless referral process when survivors report to the police;
- Support outreach and training required for NVRDC's services efforts;
- Implement NVRDC's policies and practices in assisting survivors and coordinating with third parties; and
- Refer survivors to appropriate internal and external services to include: medical treatment, compensation assistance, legal support, therapeutic needs, shelter, and social and educational needs.

General Direct Services:

- Attend hearings virtually and in-person in the criminal legal, civil legal, and administrative justice systems to support and advocate for survivors, as needed;
- Assist survivors of crime with case management;
- Participate in education and training opportunities with partner agencies and members of the DC community;
- Maintain accurate and timely case records;
- Work closely with law enforcement agencies, attorneys, schools, health and welfare agencies to carry out the mission and objectives of NVRDC;
- Committed to an anti-racist, client-centered approach to advocacy and ability to work on delicate issues in a compassionate and sensitive manner;
- Manage a diverse caseload of clients for intake, assessment, referrals, and case progress;
- Attend training and webinars related to serving survivors of crime;
- Communicate and work well with staff and clients from a variety of racial, cultural, and economic backgrounds, and with various religious beliefs, lifestyles, sexual orientation, identities, age variance and differing abilities.
- Perform other duties as needed.

QUALIFICATIONS:

The successful candidate for this position must possess a combination of education, direct services, or life experience that supports working with survivors of crime and a demonstrated commitment to both public interest work and assistance to underserved populations. This position requires a self-starter who works well independently and as a team player. The successful candidate will be able to exercise discretion and independent judgment in decision-making on matters significant to the organization, with little to no oversight. Specific skills and background include:

- Proficiency in American Sign Language (ASL) preferred; or proficiency in Spanish with the ability to speak, read and write in both English and Spanish preferred;[1]
- Bachelor's degree encouraged but not required; related degree field preferred (Criminal Justice, Sociology, Psychology, Women and Gender Studies, Social Work);
- 1-3 years of direct victim services experience, strongly preferred;
- Experience working with survivors of power based violence;
- Shift work or on-call experience a plus;
- Must be able respond across DC within 1 hour or being activated when on-call and available to work weekends and holidays;
- Extensive knowledge of victim services available within the District of Columbia, preferred;
- Demonstrated commitment to social justice, anti-racist, anti-oppression, and/or ending power-based violence;
- Demonstrated desire to work with crime victims and ensure they receive the services;
- Experience working for marginalized communities and crime victims;
- Experience working in the nonprofit arena;
- Top-notch oral and written communication skills;
- A reputation for integrity, dependability, and professionalism;

PHYSICAL DEMANDS:

The physical demands described are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

Compliance with partner/affiliate policy may be required to fulfill core duties detailed in your job description. Such partners/affiliates may include but are not limited to District and Federal Court systems, MedStar Washington Hospital Center, Metropolitan Police Department, DCFNE and the like. Such directives may include but are not limited to use of personal protective equipment, health testing (such as Tuberculosis screening), flu and COVID vaccine requirements, and other directives as determined by NVRDC's Executive Director when necessary to keep staff, clients, and partners safe and healthy.
