

DC TROV's Elder Justice Community Resources List for 2021

REPORT ABUSE

Adult Protective Services,

24/7 Hotline: 202-541-3950

- Investigates/reports/coordinates services for up to 90 days to address neglect and capacity.

Metropolitan Police Department,

911

- Domestic Violence Unit, Financial & Cyber Crimes Unit, and other units may assist in senior cases. All detectives received elder abuse training.

Office of Attorney General, 202-727-3807

- Can report financial exploitation to the Elder Justice Section.
- Civil cases, Informational resources, Criminal cases.

HEALTH & CRISIS

Washington Hospital House Call Program, 202-877-0576

- House calls for primary & urgent care, monthly and as needed.
- Diagnostic tests at home & mediation delivery.
- On-call physician: 24/7 by phone.
- In-home counseling & caregiver support.

Mobile Crisis Team at NAMI,

202-673-9300 (9am-1pm)

- Teams respond to adults in psychiatric crisis who are unable or unwilling to travel to receive mental health services.
- Crisis stabilization including dispensing medications & performing assessment for hospitalizations and linkages to other services.

nvrdc

GET SERVICES

Long Term Care Ombudsman,

202-434-2190

- Long-term care with home health aides and ensure compliance with DC and federal laws.

Network for Victim Recovery of DC,

202-742-1727

- Free advocacy, case management & civil/criminal legal services for older victims.
- DC's Sexual Assault Crisis Response services.

Legal Counsel for the Elderly,

202-434-2120

- Free civil legal services for DC residents age 60+.

Department of Aging & Community Living, 202-724-5626

- Throughout every DC Ward, DACL funds services that can support elder victims' additional needs in living free from the abuser.

FIND SHELTER

S.O.M.E.,

202-797-8806

- 5 Dedicated beds for senior victims. Priority placement for APS referrals.

District Alliance for Safe Housing,

202-290-2356

- Services available regardless of survivor's decision to report the crime.

ElderSAFE,

301-816-5099

- Located within nursing facility in Rockville, MD but accepts elder abuse victims from DC.