Network for Victim Recovery of DC Named ‘One of the Best’ Nonprofits by the Catalogue for Philanthropy

As it Celebrates its 15th Anniversary Serving the Greater Washington Region, the Catalogue for Philanthropy is Proud to Honor NVRDC

WASHINGTON, DC—June 14, 2017—After a careful vetting process, the Catalogue for Philanthropy: Greater Washington has selected the Network for Victim Recovery of DC to be part of the Class of 2017-18. NVRDC has undergone an extensive review process, and has met the Catalogue’s high standards. Potential donors can be confident that the nonprofits in the Catalogue are worthy of their support. The Network for Victim Recovery of DC’s mission is to empower victims of all crimes to achieve survivor-defined justice through a collaborative continuum of advocacy, case management and legal services.

This year the Catalogue celebrates its 15th anniversary: since its inception it has raised $38 million for nonprofits in the region. It also offers trainings, neighborhood-based opportunities for collaboration, and a speakers series for individuals who want to learn about and engage with the needs, challenges, and accomplishments of our shared community.

This year, reviewers helped select 76 charities to feature in the print edition, 34 of which are new to the Catalogue this year. It also selected an additional 32 nonprofits to be re-featured on its website, and congratulated ten on growing beyond its $3million budgetary limit. The network now includes over 400 vetted nonprofits working in the arts, education, environment, human services, and international sectors throughout greater Washington. (International charities must be headquartered in the DC region.)

“People want to know where to give and they need trusted information. Based on our in-depth review, we believe that the Network for Victim Recovery of DC is one of the best community-based nonprofits in the region,” says Barbara Harman, founder and president of the Catalogue for Philanthropy.

“We are proud to be a part of such a select group of nonprofits. To be listed among so many outstanding organizations after five short years of providing services speaks to the hard work of our staff, board, and volunteers,” stated NVRDC Co-Executive Director, Bridgette Stumpf. “We are excited to be part of this resource that provides valuable information for those looking to support important issues impacting our community.”

The Catalogue believes in the power of small nonprofits to spark big change. As the only locally-focused guide to giving, its goal is to create visibility for the best community-based charities, fuel their growth with philanthropic dollars, and create a movement for social good in the greater Washington region. The Catalogue charges no fees; it raises funds separately to support its work.
